Professor receives Fulbright Scholarship

Duane Roller, professor of classics, The Ohio State University at Lima has been awarded a prestigious Fulbright grant to lecture in India this winter.

Dr. Roller will be attached to several universities in Calcutta and will be lecturing on a wide range of material, most of which is connected with the issue of the classical world and India. Dr. Roller has had a long standing interest in the eastern fringes of the Greco-Roman world, an area that has been little studied.

Established in 1946 under congressional legislation introduced by former Senator J. William Fulbright of Arkansas, the program is designed "to increase mutual understanding between the people of the United States and the people of other countries."

Under the Fulbright Program, some 5,000 grants are awarded each year to American students, teachers and scholars to study, teach, and conduct research around the world, and to foreign nationals to engage in similar activities in the United States. Individuals are selected on the basis of academic and professional qualifications, plus their ability and willingness to share ideas and experiences with people of diverse cultures.

Invitation to join the Lima Civic Chorus

Richard L. Mallonee, assistant professor of music at OSU-Lima, has been selected as the interim choral director of the Lima Civic Chorus. The chorus is a very energetic and musically talented group of adult singers from several surrounding counties in northwest Ohio. This outstanding group has a long choral history here in Lima and from time to time performs with the Lima Symphony Orchestra.

Dr. Mallonee would like to invite the faculty and staff to join the Lima Civic Chorus for the next choral program. Rehearsals are held every Tuesday evening beginning January 10th, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m., at Trinity United Methodist Church, 301 W. Market St., Lima. The spring choral concert is scheduled for Sunday, April 2nd, at 3:00 p.m. at Trinity United Methodist Church. All voice parts are welcome to join at this time. There is a particular need, however, for additional altos, tenors and basses. Music reading ability should be average.

The chorus will be preparing a diverse program; included are selected sacred choral masterpieces from major choral works of Mozart, Beethoven, Mendelssohn, the complete Schubert Mass in G, the Offenbach "Neighbors' Chorus" from the comic opera La joie Parfumeuse, a contemporary work, O Be Joyful by Gilbert Martin and "Down by the Riverside" arranged by John Rutter.

Tribute to Martin Luther King

Martin Luther King, Jr. remembered, January 16

Inspired by the belief that love and peaceful protest could end social injustice, Martin Luther King, Jr., became one of the outstanding leaders in the United States during his short but active life. King was profoundly influenced by Henry David Thoreau, author of "Civil Disobedience," and Mohandas K. Gandhi who used nonviolence to help free India from British control, and aroused whites and blacks alike to protest racial discrimination, poverty, and war. A champion of nonviolent resistance to oppression, he was posthumously awarded the Presidential Medal of Freedom in 1977. In 1964, he was awarded the Nobel peace prize, the youngest man to receive the prestigious honor. King rejected "separatism" and tried to unite many groups in a campaign against poverty. He involved such groups as American Indians and Spanish-speaking Americans while planning a "Poor People's March" on Washington for 1968. Unfortunately King was assassinated before he was able to lead the march, but the man and his ideals are remembered and the struggle for human rights continues.

Positive Vision Theatre

On Tuesday, January 31, at 6:30 p.m. the OSU Lima Master of Social Work program is hosting the Positive Vision Theatre from Columbus as an entertaining method of education for both the campus and community. The program will feature vignettes and scenes addressing the issues confronted by people affected by HIV and AIDS. For more information, contact Carole Enneking (Student Activities, ext. 414) or Nelson Griffis (OSU Social Work, ext. 487).

And the Dream lives on...

On January 16, from 10:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m. OSU-Lima co-hosts a statewide observance of Martin Luther King Day, in conjunction with the Ohio Commission on African-American Males and the Cheryl Allen Center. Between 200 and 300 young African-American men together with local dignitaries are expected to attend the celebration which includes movies and a discussion.

Annual basketball event planned

Student Senate, Social Activities Board, and Athletics will join together for another BARON BLOW-OUT, fun evening of fan appreciation on Jan. 25. The Barons play our local rival Wright State Lake Campus at 7:30pm. Admission is free for all campus employees and students (with ID). Half-time shootout, door prizes and more will be offered.

Students In Free Enterprise

Information has been received about Students In Free Enterprise, a not-for-profit organization whose mission is to create teams on college campuses to teach free enterprise. SIFE is an active learning program in the areas of economics, management, marketing, education, and communications. At many institutions SIFE participants receive academic credit as well. If interested, contact Carole Enneking for handbook, video tape, and more information.

Support the Spring Break trip

Buy a candy bar to support Spring Break trip to Arizona. SAB and Student Senate are underwriting a first-ever Spring Break trip to the West. Since many students would not be able to afford the price of the trip, the two groups are assisting with bake sales, bachelor/bachelorette auctions, and a candy bar sale. The candy bars are only $1.00 each and are available in the Student Activities Office (GA 066).

Wellness Fair

The second annual wellness fair is planned for Tuesday, January 24 from 11am-1pm in the Public Services/Administration Building Atrium. Employees as well as students are encouraged to attend and find out how healthy you are. LTC Health Divisions and others will be available with interactive tasks, tests, and diagnostics. Everything is free (and pretty non-threatening)!

Welcome!

Welcome to Carol German, the new Learning Disabilities Counselor. Her office is located in PS 145 and her telephone extension is 453. She will be on campus on Wednesdays from 8:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m., but will be picking up her messages during the week. Please contact Carol for any student problems you feel are in need of an LD Counselor.
